Managing Partner

Chinguun Munkhbold

Chinguun specializes in corporate and business law and has over 12 years of professional experience in the legal sector. He has advised both domestic and international businesses and investors on contractual and regulatory matters relating to major investment projects, commercial transactions, and development programs implemented in Mongolia. He previously worked at one of Mongolia's first international law firms affiliated with leading US and UK based legal practices, where he gained extensive experience in Anglo-Saxon legal advisory services, contract drafting, and international legal practice standards. In addition, while serving as Head of the Legal Department of an international audit and consulting firm, he advised clients on financing arrangements, investments, and commercial contracts, with a particular focus on tax law implications and compliance matters. Mr. Chinguun has also been responsible for the administration and management of construction and service contracts for major underground mining development projects in Mongolia, with a total project value exceeding USD 1 billion. He possesses substantial experience in the implementation and administration of FIDIC and EPC contracts and is well-versed in large-scale infrastructure and mining projects. His work experience include:

Ministry of Foreign Affairs (2011-2012)

Hogan Lovells (2013-2017)

Our team

Alongside the Managing Partner, NBK Law Firm brings together a close-knit team of lawyers, a paralegal, and a legal translator, selected for both technical depth and cross-border fluency.

Our lawyers advise on corporate and commercial matters, foreign investment, mergers and acquisitions, project finance, dispute resolution, and regulatory compliance, drawing on experience across private practice, government, and international firms. They are supported by a paralegal handling research, due diligence, and corporate filings, and by a legal translator ensuring precise translation of legal and policy documents between English and Mongolian.

Our lawyers are members of the Mongolian Bar Association and work across Mongolian, English, and Chinese.
